

Textbook Readings:

10/09/2003

INSTRUCTIONS: Each group will read and review their specific section. They will then:

1. Present a summary to the class, which includes the review question(s) answers.
2. The summary will include a list of the main points on a separate piece of butcher paper, big enough for all of the class to read on the whiteboard.
3. Create a picture or cartoon to help us understand their section of the textbook; the group will explain the picture or cartoon as a part of their summary presentation
4. Type the summary, main points and review question(s) answers onto the school server
