

Opening Statements Chart

Read and analyze Opening Statements for all countries, looking for similarities and differences with your own opening statement, and identifying questions that need to be answered in order to arrive at an international agreement of what the problem(s) is/are regarding your issue. Take brief notes in the chart below, to help organize your findings. Then, rate the country's potential for being an ally with our country on a scale of 1 to 5. (1 = not an ally, 5 = definitely an ally)
