Artist Agreement 2012

This is an agreement between

_____,
Artist or group ("the artist,") and the Shubb company ("Shubb").

Shubb agrees to provide products in any quantities at the discounted prices listed here.

The artist agrees to not publicly use any products which are direct competitors to these Shubb products which they have been provided, and which they agree to endorse.

The artist states that his or her primary profession is that of musician and/or music teacher.

The artist agrees to allow Shubb to use his or her name and/or picture as an endorsement for these products.

Shubb agrees that any use of the artist's name or picture will be in good taste, and consistent with the artist's public image.

Shubb agrees that any picture of the artist or statement by the artist used by Shubb will be subject to the artist's approval.

The artist is not expected to express any opinions about the products or the Shubb company that are not genuine, nor is he or she required to use the products in any exaggerated manner in order to expose or promote them.

The artist is permitted (but not required) to sell any Shubb products in conjunction with their performances, workshops, or seminars, or via their websites.

Shubb agrees to remain responsive to the artist's requirements and receptive to their input regarding product and performance needs.

No artist in our endorsement program is to be paid for their endorsement, other than the benefits described above.
